

The third semester of the new Choice Based Credit System (CBCS), introduced by the University of Calcutta, is scheduled to commence soon. For the purpose of addressing various queries regarding the course material and also for arriving at a common understanding amongst the undergraduate teachers of Economics regarding papers on Data Analysis and Applied Econometrics, the Department of Economics, Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata is organizing a workshop.

It gives me immense pleasure to invite you to the above workshop on 3rd May, 2019. The brief itinerary and related information of the workshop is given in the annexure.

We look forward to your participation and valuable inputs during the deliberations at the Workshop.
